

BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH.

VOLUME 5, NO. 177.

BRAINERD, MINN., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1905.

PRICE TWO CENTS

DEFEAT FOR REBELS

RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT WINS A COMPARATIVELY EASY VICTORY OVER "REDS."

WILL NOT QUICKLY RECOVER

INSURGENTS BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN SUBDUED FOR SOME TIME TO COME.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 30.—The suppression of the insurrection at Moscow and the certainty that similar uprisings elsewhere will be crushed mark the collapse of the first attempt of the "reds" to overthrow the government and administrators a defeat from which it is not believed in governmental circles the revolutionaries can quickly recover.

Now that the smoke of battle is clearing away the utter hopelessness of the conflict seems to be apparent. The populace held aloof and not a single military unit actually joined the revolutionaries. Even the general strike crumbled under their feet by their challenging and precipitating a conflict before the proletariat organizations were prepared. The government secured a comparatively easy though ruthless victory, and it is believed in high official circles that the organizations have been so disrupted and demoralized by the blow that it will be impossible for them to attempt the coup planned for the anniversary of "Bloody Sunday." In desperation undoubtedly the revolutionaries will again have recourse to acts of terror, which they will spring at the most unexpected moment.

The country has quieted down and the cabinet now hopes that the elections to the dumas are assured and that the government can devote its time to the suppression of the revolt in the Baltic provinces and more especially to the solution of the agrarian question. If means cannot be found to in some measure satisfy the land hunger of the peasants before spring, the universal opinion is that the peasants everywhere will rise. The land proprietors seem to be convinced of this to such an extent that the landlords in the neighborhood of Minsk are calling their tenants together and are voluntarily arranging the distribution of a portion of their private holdings upon terms satisfactory to the peasants.

TO ANNIHILATE INSURGENTS.

Russian Official Prepares to Surround Them.

Riga, Livonia, Dec. 30, via Edytkaunen, East Prussia, Dec. 30.—There has been no break in the general strike here. The inhabitants are not molested by the revolutionists. Otherwise the situation remains unchanged. The revolutionaries are posting placards in five languages ordering the inhabitants to disarm the police and soldiers, and to barricade the town. The people, however, frequently tear down these placards.

A heavy snow is falling in this district.

It is said that the new governor general with 32,000 additional troops is planning to uproot the revolutionary movement by surrounding Livonia and Courland and driving all the revolutionaries into a bag-shaped corner of Courland between Riga and Libau, where they will be annihilated, warships cutting off all escape by sea.

SITUATION AT MOSCOW.

Streets of That City Assuming Their Normal Condition.

Moscow, Dec. 30.—The electric light system was restored at 3 o'clock p.m. The streets are gradually assuming their normal condition. It is probable the railways will soon resume their regular schedules.

MEANS BIG SUM FOR STATE.

Minnesota Inheritance Tax Law Held Constitutional.

St. Paul, Dec. 30.—The supreme court has handed down an opinion in the case of Jesse Foot, as county treasurer of Ramsey county, against E. W. Hazle, as judge of the probate court, in which the court holds the inheritance tax law constitutional and a valid legal enactment.

Judge Hazle held in the case of the probate of the last will and testament of the late Paul D. Ferguson that the law was unconstitutional.

The decision of the supreme court is exceedingly important. For years attempts have been made to frame an inheritance tax law that would stick.

The ruling of the supreme court at once makes available nearly $600,000 in inheritance taxes which have been held up pending the court's findings.

ASKS CLEMENCY FOR PATRICK.
Former President Cleveland Signs a Petition.

New York, Dec. 30.—It was announced here at night that former President Cleveland heads the list of signatures to the petition which is to be forwarded to Governor Higgins next week, asking for clemency in the case of Albert T. Patrick, who is under sentence of death for the murder of William Marsh Rice.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 30.—Governor Higgins announced at night that he had received a letter from Dr. Allen McLane Hamilton of New York city in which the well known alienist asked for executive clemency for Albert T. Patrick, the New York lawyer, now in Sing Sing awaiting execution for the alleged murder of William Marsh Rice.

"The grounds on which Dr. Hamilton has asked me to interfere," said Governor Higgins, "are, first, that he believes there is no proper evidence that Mr. Rice's death came from unnatural causes, and, secondly, that no confidence should be placed in the testimony of Jones, the valet, on account of his conflicting stories."

Governor Higgins said he had received other letters from other people throughout the state who were interesting themselves in Patrick's behalf. No executive action has yet been taken regarding the letters.

C. T. YERKES IS DEAD

NOTED RAILWAY FINANCIER OF CHICAGO AND LONDON EXPIRES IN NEW YORK.

New York, Dec. 30.—Charles T. Yerkes, the noted railway financier of Chicago and London, died during the day in his apartments at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, where he had been ill for more than six weeks. Mr. Yerkes suffered from a complication of diseases, growing out of a severe cold which he contracted in London early in the fall. His condition had been critical for ten days past and the attending physicians gave up all hope several days ago, although members of the family clung tenaciously to the belief that the remarkable vitality of Mr. Yerkes would eventually pull him through. Since Thursday night the patient had been kept alive by strong stimulants.

Despite statements said to have come earlier in the day from Mrs. Charles T. Yerkes, wife of the capitalist, that she would not go to the Waldorf-Astoria, the following official statement was made by Dr. Loomis, who had attended Mr. Yerkes throughout his illness:

"At the deathbed were Mrs. Charles T. Yerkes, his wife; Charles Edward Yerkes, a son, and his wife; Mrs. Charles Rondamiller, a daughter, and myself.

"At 1:00 o'clock Mrs. Yerkes was telephoned to that her husband was dying and she relented and went to the hotel and was present when he died. This was the first time Mrs. Yerkes had been at the hotel during her husband's illness. The death was peaceful, but unexpected at the time."

Speyer & Co., the New York banking firm which had much to do with the local financing of Mr. Yerkes' affairs, issued a statement saying that arrangements have been made for carrying on Mr. Yerkes' vast enterprises.

BOSTON FIRM SUSPENDS.

Rise in Copper Stocks Said to Be Responsible.

Boston, Dec. 30.—The recent rise in copper stocks on the Boston Stock Exchange was an important contributing cause of the suspension during the day of the stock brokerage firm of H. R. Leighton & Co., which assigned for the benefit of its creditors. Although the firm is not a member of any stock exchange the assignment was adjudged of considerable importance from the fact that the firm has some forty branch offices, all but three of them in New England cities and towns. The outside offices are at Montreal, Halifax, N. S., and St. Johns, N. F. The assignee is Charles E. Allen, a lawyer of this city. The firm stated that suspension was due to a failure of a member of the Boston Stock Exchange to meet his obligation to the company and to outstanding investments in copper stocks, of a greater or less extent—upon which necessary money could not be realized. No financial statement was issued, but it is thought the liabilities may reach $500,000. There are several hundred creditors, scattered throughout New England and Canada.

Judge Bazzle held in the case of the probate of the last will and testament of the late Paul D. Ferguson that the law was unconstitutional.

The decision of the supreme court is exceedingly important. For years attempts have been made to frame an inheritance tax law that would stick.

H. F. MICHAEL CO'S Daily Store News

Our January Clearance and Pre-inventory sale begins Tuesday

Of course this means bargains and exceptional ones too. You know of our reputation for showing only the new and this can only be done by closing out the old each season. This means that prices must be halved, or nearly so, and so you will find them on the articles we offer.

The coat section will show some of the greatest bargains. Think of selecting a ladies' misses' or child's coat out of the H. F. Michael Co.'s stock at $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{3}$ its regular value, yet that is what we will do next week. And every coat is a late style: styles which were brought out late in October and early in November.

Little consideration is shown the profits on underwear and hosiery. 35c vests or pants for ladies will sell at 22 $\frac{1}{2}$ c. The better qualities in wool and union suits will be sold equally as low.

Comforters too and the blankets are greatly reduced as well as silkliners, sateens and batting for the making of comforters.

Nor is this all: Outing flannels, Dress goods, Fleeced goods, Eiderdowns, Silks, Mittens and the like will be on sale.

We will use every effort to make a good display of all goods on sale and we know that you will find a few hours spent in our store looking them over to be well spent.

the entire upper part of the building was afire. The other occupants of the building were aroused and all managed to escape or were rescued by firemen.

Minnesota Educators.

St. Paul, Dec. 30.—The Minnesota Educational association went on record during the day as favoring reform in football and declaring that "the game as now managed and played in this country exerts an unwholesome influence upon our youth." The association elected the following officers: President, A. W. Rankin, Minneapolis; corresponding secretary, W. F. Kunze, Red Wing; treasurer, C. E. Payne, Long Prairie; recording secretary, Miss Nora Sutton, Alexandria.

As soon as the indictment was laid before Judge Bethea in the United States circuit court he fixed bonds of $5,000 in each case, and the officials of the Burlington road were notified to call and give bail to the amount of $15,000, which they agreed to do without delay.

The greater part of the evidence upon which the indictment was voted is said to have been furnished by T. P. Alder of New York, president of the United States Steel Products company; J. L. Moore, foreign traffic agent for the Burlington road, and R. W. Perry, freight claim agent of the Great Northern road.

MINNESOTA is fifth among the states and territories in railroad building for the year just closed.

A CLEVELAND girl attempted suicide because her sweetheart forgot to remember her on Christmas with a substantial gift. This Christmas business is taken too seriously by some people, and the habit is growing.

The inheritance tax law has been held to be constitutional by the state supreme court and the decision is of much importance as all efforts heretofore made to tax inheritances have been declared illegal. The law was passed by the last legislature.

The complete returns from the county auditors in the state show that there were 15,810 game licenses issued to residents hunters, 225 to non-residents for small game and 80 for big game. Conditions under the present game laws of the state seem to be entirely satisfactory to a great majority of the people.

The franking privilege costs the government $20,000,000 annually and the postmaster general wants it abolished. It is a well known fact that much of the stuff sent out from Washington under the franking is not worth the postage that would have to be paid on it and if the privilege was not abused the amount saved would go a long ways towards making up the postal deficit.

LEON J. RAFIDAL IS NOT GUILTY

Jury Returned Verdict This Morning In the District Court At 9 O'clock

THE DEFENDANT IS DISCHARGED

Case Has Attracted Wide Attention—Attorney Ryan is Congratulated

"Not Guilty."

This was the verdict rendered by the jury in the case of the State of Minnesota against Leon J. Rafidal, charged with manslaughter in the first degree.

The jury was charged and went out to deliberate over the case at 5:30 o'clock last evening and remained out all night. They agreed, it is understood, before they retired last night, but the court and officers retired and the verdict could not be brought in until this morning at 9 o'clock.

There was a large crowd in the court room at 9 o'clock anticipating that the verdict would be returned at that time. The court awaited a moment until the defendant, Rafidal, came in, then called the jury in. Rafidal was apparently agitated for the first time during the entire procedure of the case, and he had a right to be for it was a decisive moment in his life; it either meant that the bonds would be severed and he would return to the arms of his family and gain his liberty or that he would stand the next moment within the pail of the penitentiary, where he would have to stay for from five to twenty years.

There was a sigh of relief went up when the verdict was announced, and those in the court room generally were thought to be in sympathy with Rafidal.

The history of the case which led up to the trial is still fresh in the memory of all Brainerd people. T. D. Merrill, an old soldier living in Todd county arrived in the city on the evening of November 15 from his home en route to LaPorte where he was employed by A. D. Polk in the cedar camps. He got into town on the Morris train late in the evening and could not get north until the next afternoon. He went to the Globe saloon first where he stayed for some time and had several drinks. There he met a Martin Donahue and the two went to the saloon of the John Coates Liquor company. Here Donahue introduced Merrill to Leon J. Rafidal, who was tending bar there. The old man ordered a drink and then went to back end of the room. The evidence in the case disclosed the fact that he got abusive and swore and tore around the place for long time. He finally ordered another drink, but was refused this drink, Rafidal claiming that the old man had not paid for the first drink. At this Merrill threatened Rafidal and called him all kinds of names, the evidence going so far as to show that the old man even hit Rafidal on the arm. Rafidal hit the old man in the face and he fell to the floor. He was later taken to the back door and put out. Officer Hurley happened through the alley, picked the old man up and took him jail. The next morning he was found dead on the bunk in the jail and there was a large fracture of the skull at the rear of the head and another wound at the front of his face. Rafidal was arrested charged with causing the death of the old man and the coroner's jury rendered a verdict to this effect. The subsequent events are well known to all readers of THE DISPATCH.

Leon J. Rafidal secured Attorney M. E. Ryan to defend him and Mr. Ryan is receiving the congratulations of all on the manner in which he conducted the case. It might be stated that it was thought first that outside counsel would be secured to assist him, but this was not done. Mr. Ryan made a record for himself in the case, and got as much out of it as any lawyer could have done and squeezed his client out of a very tight hole.

Attorney A. D. Polk prosecuted the case in an able manner, and his address to the jury yesterday afternoon was one of the best that has ever been heard in a similar case in the county. The addresses of both Mr. Polk and Mr. Ryan were commendable.

There was much important evidence taken in the case after THE DISPATCH went to press yesterday afternoon, but in the light of further developments in the case all this would be disinteresting.

Leon J. Rafidal is now a free man and has returned to his work at the John Coates Liquor company saloon, and a little family has been made happy.

Torture of a Preacher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough resulting from the grip. I had to sleep setting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased conditions of throat and lungs. At H. P. Dunn & Co., druggists; price 50¢ and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

BOYD PAYS FINE

Brainerd Man Convicted of Killing Cow Moose is Denied an Appeal—Fine And Costs are $300

B. F. Boyd, of Brainerd, convicted in justice court at Northome of having killed a female moose on Nov. 14, 1904, was yesterday denied an appeal in district court at Grand Rapids by Judge Spooner and was compelled to pay a fine of $50 and costs imposed by the justice of the peace at Northome, amounting in all to about $300. This ends one of the most noteworthy cases of illegal killing of game ever prosecuted by the state game and fish commission, which won a signal victory in obtaining a conviction.

One of the World's Greatest Remedies.

Mr. S. P. Mason, of Markle, Ind., writes:—I have been in the drug trade twenty years and have handled your White Wine of Tar fifteen years. I have never sold a remedy that equals it. Fifteen years ago, I bought a bill of this medicine from your agent. The first bottle I put out was for asthma in the case of Jos. Ledbetter of this town. The Dr. said he could not live. CHURCHES TO UNITE

REUNION OF THE PRESBYTERIAN BODIES TO OCCUR AFTER A LONG SEPARATION.

DETAILS ARE ALL ARRANGED

JOINT SESSION OF GENERAL COMMITTEES DECIDES ON PLAN OF AMALGAMATION.

St. Louis, Dec. 30.—After a division of almost 100 years steps were consummated during the day in the joint session of general committees which when formally ratified will unite the Northern Presbyterian church, U. S. A., and the Cumberland Presbyterian church. Almost two days have been consumed by subcommittees in arranging details for the union. Their report were submitted to the general committees representing each church during the morning. Within two hours the two general committees had met in joint session and agreed upon a basis for the union of the two denominational bodies. This agreement will be reported to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, meeting at Des Moines, Ia., on May 17, 1906, and of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, meeting in Decatur, Ill., on the same date, for formal ratification by these two executive assemblies, which will be followed by the official announcement that the union of the two churches has finally been consummated.

The general committee of the Cumberland Presbyterian church had its full quota of twenty-one members present, the chairman being Rev. Dr. W. H. Black of Marshall, Mo. Only sixteen of the twenty-one members of the Presbyterian general committee were present. Rev. Dr. W. H. Roberts of Philadelphia was chairman. The joint session was executive in character.

Only One Dissenting Vote.

It was stated that on the joint ballot on the question of the proposed union there was but one dissenting vote, that being cast by Elder T. W. Keller of Knoxville, Tenn., a member of the Cumberland committee. It was further stated that when the Cumberland committee was appointed seven members known to be in opposition to the proposed union were placed on the committee. The vote indicated that six had changed their minds during the deliberations in committee.

The report adopted after carefully reviewing several similar efforts for union of the two churches, recites the legal steps taken, beginning with the appointment of committees in 1903 and declares that the effect of all these steps is primarily that the confession of faith of the Presbyterian church U. S. A., as revised in 1903, and the other doctrinal and ecclesiastical standards of the church have been constitutionally adopted by the Cumberland Presbyterian church, as has also the joint report prepared by these two general committees two years ago, that the reunion and union of the two churches has been fully agreed to by both and it is recommended that immediately after the effect of the foregoing steps, thus for taken, have been announced, the confession of faith and the other doctrinal and ecclesiastical standards of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A. shall be binding upon the ministers, ruling elders, deacons, officers, churches, adjudicators, boards, committees and all other agencies of the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

All of the presbyteries of the two churches are to elect commissioners to the united general assembly of 1907 after the union of the two churches shall have been announced.

LAW HELD CONSTITUTIONAL.

Wisconsin Anti-Pass Statute Declared to Be Legal.

Grand Rapids, Wis., Dec. 30.—Judge Webb has decided that the Wisconsin anti-pass law is legal and denied a motion for the arrest of judgment in the case against an attorney for the Wisconsin Central railway company.

The defendant is an attorney in the employ of the Wisconsin Central railway and part of his remuneration from the company was in the shape of transportation. At the same time he was a notary public. The anti-pass law enacted by the last legislature forbids the use of transportation secured otherwise than by purchase at regular rates by persons holding office of any kind under the constitution or laws of the state, except when in pursuit of the business of the company issuing such transportation. The case was argued Sept. 21.

Hart Goes to the Penitentiary.

Chicago, Dec. 30.—Dr. Oliver B. Hart, son of a wealthy resident of St. Louis, who two weeks ago pleaded guilty to the murder of Irene Klockow, ten years old, in his residence in Rogers Park last October, was sentenced during the day by Judge Barnes in the criminal court to forty-five years in the penitentiary.

Practical Joke Results in Tragedy.

Notre Dame, Ind., Dec. 30.—Louis Roquela of Colombia, South America, a student at Notre Dame university, at night shot and almost instantly killed Claude A. Bagby of Durango, Colo., when Bagby and several other students as a practical joke held up Roquela instead of another person.

SEEMS QUIET BY CONTRAST.

Distributive Trade Not So Active as During the Holiday Rush.

New York, Dec. 30.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says following an unprecedentedly active holiday business in all parts of the country, distributive trade seems quiet by contrast, more particularly as unseasonably mild weather affects retail operations in seasonable heavy wearing apparel. What is bad for retail business is, however, good for outdoor industry particularly building, which remains very active, and manufacturing operations are likewise active. In whole sale trade clearing sales and stock-taking operations absorb attention but it is noted that operations for spring account are larger than ordinary and in fact business is heavier than expected at this season. Retail clearance sales have begun rather earlier than usual. Staples generally maintain all their old strength. Iron and steel, lead the industries in strength of demand and prices. Labor is exceptionally well employed.

THREE TRAINMEN KILLED.

Passenger and Freight Trains Collide at Granville, N. D.

Minot, N. D., Dec. 30.—A head-on collision occurred just before noon at Granville, twenty-eight miles east of here on the Great Northern between eastbound passenger No. 6 and a west bound freight. Fred Barlow, engineer, and Toby Erwin, fireman of the freight, were killed. Ed Gosselin, brakeman, was seriously injured and died later. A misunderstanding of orders is reported to be the cause of the wreck. Some passengers were injured but no one seriously. Ex-Governor J. M. Devine was on the train but was uninjured.

Two other wrecks occurred near here during the day, one at Surrey six miles east of here, and the other at Tioga, ninety miles west. No one was seriously injured in either.

Snow Delays Trains.

La Crosse, Wis., Dec. 30.—Falling for sixteen hours a snow storm which ended during the day left nine inches of snow on the ground. Trains on several railroads are hours late.
